Testimonials

"Upon listening to the Vincent Tucker Radio Show for the first time, I was taken aback by the fact here was a truly engaging program made up of gifted individuals without the luxury of show prep services and a staff of writers. A show successfully taking on topics of current events, politics, sports, and social concerns that matter most to today's young adults. Mr. Tucker remains cool behind his mic, not focused on being funny, but a naturally witty, intelligent, and very articulate host that you might expect of a veteran broadcaster. Vincent has crafted a radio show with personalities of various strengths that simply "works". I highly recommend the Vincent Tucker Radio Show to any radio network looking for an influential edge in the 18 to 34 urban contemporary demographic."
